Transformative Outcomes

UAT For A F500 Insurer To Enable Critical Rollout

- Challenge: A Fortune 500 insurer's Public Risk Group faced a significant backlog in User Acceptance Testing (UAT) for 15 lines of business, threatening the timely rollout of their digital transformation project.
- Impact: Despite the challenge, the system went live within 5 months, accelerating QBI turnaround times and enabling efficient engagement with broker partners and agents. Our regression automation suite also reduced manual testing efforts by 35%.

Business Analysis And Testing For Client Success

- Challenge: A leading auto insurer's digital transformation with a customized Duck Creek solution faced UAT challenges, including incorrect user requirements and deliverables not meeting acceptance criteria.
- Impact: The project was paused, delaying business plans. However, in mid-2023, the project was restarted with Duck Creek as the development partner. We were re-engaged for program management, QA, UAT services, and data migration, with go-live expected in late summer.
